

The EWC as an instrument for organising workers in multinational companies.

Florence, Italy 9-11.10.2019

	Wednesday 9 October	Thursday 10 October	Friday 11 October
9.00	welcome by ETUI and EFFAT presentation of the participants line-up energiser the importance of EWCs for building trade union power in multinational companies input by Enrico Somaglia Deputy General Secretary	examples of international organising actions the Centre for Organising for Central Europe – COZZ input by Rafal Tomasiak, Director (tbc) the Baltic Organising Academy input by Aslak Haarahiltunen head of organising at Metalliliitto (tbc)	an action plan for building union power in the participating companies preparation in working groups
10.30	coffee break	coffee break	coffee break
11.00	mapping of the participating companies preparation in working groups exchange in plenary	EWC and capacity building: The experience of the Mondelez EWC (tbc) experiences with organising at local level preparation in national/regional working groups and exchange in plenary	an action plan for building union power in the participating companies report of the working groups conclusions by Harald Wiedenhofer Secretary General and Kristijan Bragason, candidate Secretary General assessment
12.30	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch
14.00	ensuring union presence in multinational companies: the role of the EWC and the union coordinator case study	EWCs and organising: tools and resources? “World Café”
15.30	coffee break	coffee break
16.00	the experience, practices and policies of industriAll Europe input by Ildiko Krén, Strategic Organiser (tbc)	EWCs and organising debriefing of the World Café composition of the EFFAT toolbox for organising workers in multinational companies plenary activity	end of the training departure of the participants
17.30	end of the day	end of the day

