The European Trade Union Institute (ETUI) in cooperation with the Instituto Ricerche Economiche E Sociali (IRES), CESOS and EURISPES cordially invite you to the:

5th Annual TURI conference
Organised with the support of CGIL, CISL and UIL

21-22 March 2013
Centro Congressi Cavour, Via Cavour 50/a, Rome

Draft agenda

Thursday, 21 March

13h30 lunch buffet & refreshments

14h30 Opening and welcome addresses:
Philippe Pochet, General Director ETUI
Raffaele Minelli, President IRES
Giuseppe Acocella, President CESOS
Marco Ricceri, Secretary General EURISPES

15h00 Introduction in the Italian industrial relations system by Prof. Gian Primo Cella, University of Milano

16h00 coffee break

16h30 Trade unions’ round table: The reform of labour law in Italy and its impact on collective bargaining and the working people
Fausto Durante, Head of CGIL Europe Secretariat
Andrea Mone, European Policies Coordinator CISL
Gugliemo Loy, Confederal Secretary UIL
Józef Niemiec, Deputy General Secretary ETUC

20h00 Joint dinner offered by the Italian trade unions CGIL, CISL and UIL at restaurant “Sapori Sardi” (Via Piemonte 77-79)

Interpretation provided: English/Italian/German/French
Friday, 22 March

9h30 Update on recent developments in the TURI network

10h00 What outcome of the labour law reforms in different European countries so far?
Contributions from
Frédéric Lerais and Catherine Vincent, France
László Neumann and Beáta Nacsa, Hungary
Ramón Baeza Sanjuán, Spain

11h00 coffee break

Rory O’Farrell, Ireland
Christos Triantafillou, Greece
Ekaterina Ribarova, Bulgaria and discussion

13h00 lunch

14h00
- Exchange on ongoing projects: CAWIE, Pensions, EU2020
- Presentation of the Budget lines for Social dialogue 2013 by Alex Martin, Projects manager, ETUC
- Discussion on a new project proposal by the ETUI: The social dimension of EMU
  - Automatic stabilization mechanism as a substitute for a European unemployment insurance, Georg Feigl, AK Wien
  - The implications of the new system of economic governance on wages and collective bargaining, Thorsten Schulten (WSI) and Torsten Müller (ETUI)
  - If other project proposals – discussion in smaller groups

20h Joint dinner offered by the ETUI at the restaurant "Le Relazioni Culinarie" (Via Panisperna 75)

Interpretation provided: English/Italian/Spanish

______________________________
The ETUI is financially supported by the European Union.