

Contents

Sigurt Vitols and Johannes Heuschmid
Introduction .....	9
Andrew Johnston
Chapter 1
Recent developments in stakeholder theory: from the productive coalition to the governance of social cost .....	17
Inger Marie Hagen and Bernard Johann Mulder
Chapter 2
Why stakeholders? .....	41
Aline Conchon
Chapter 3
Regulating company law: the need for a holistic approach .....	71
Jan Cremers
Chapter 4
From harmonisation to regulatory competition .....	89
Johannes Heuschmid
Chapter 5
The protection of workers under EU company law – the current position and future prospects .....	115
Jonas Malmberg, Erik Sjödin and Niklas Bruun
Chapter 6
EU company law and employee involvement – some perspectives on future developments .....	137

Marie Seyboth

Chapter 7

Worker participation as an element of the democratic principle in Europe – A critique of the codetermination-relevant aspects of the Reflection Group report ..... 151

Wolfgang Däubler

Chapter 8

Investor agreements and collective labour law ..... 175

Ingemar Hamskär

Chapter 9

The importance of worker representatives on company boards and their right to consult with their trade union organisation and its management ..... 197

Isabelle Schömann

Chapter 10

The current state of information and consultation rights in the European Union..... 211

Carsten Herzberg

Chapter 11

Extending the stakeholder approach to the community: mechanisms for participative modernisation in public utilities..... 223

Janet Williamson

Chapter 12

The emperor's new clothes – enlightened shareholder value and the UK Stewardship Code..... 253

Beate Sjøfjell

Chapter 13

Regulating companies as if the world matters: reflections from the ongoing 'Sustainable Companies' project ..... 263

Janja Hojnik

Chapter 14

Sustainability reporting and the modernisation of EU accounting rules..... 287

.....
Wolfgang Kowalsky and Claudia Menne

Chapter 15

ETUC for strengthening employee involvement ..... 319

Author biographies ..... 335