Cookies Policy for ETUI

What Are Cookies

Cookies are tiny files that are downloaded to your computer, to improve your experience on our website. This notice describes what information they gather, how we use it and why we sometimes need to store these cookies. You can prevent these cookies from being stored on your computer, however this may downgrade or 'break' certain elements of the sites functionality.

How We Use Cookies

We are gathering cookies related to statistical purposes, using third-party cookies such as Google analytics, social media buttons and session state. It is recommended that you leave on these cookies as they provide statistical information to us so that we can improve your user's experience.

Disabling Cookies

You can prevent the setting of general cookies by adjusting the settings on your browser (see guidelines below). Disabling cookies will usually result in also disabling certain functionality and features of this site, therefore it is recommended that you do not disable the cookies on this website.

You can disable the cookies on your browser following the information here below:

The Cookies We Set

- Session State

Websites often collect information about how users interact with a website. This may include the pages users visit most often and whether users get error messages from certain pages. We use these so-called 'session state cookies' to help us improve our services, in order to improve our users' browsing experience. Blocking or deleting these cookies will not render the website unusable.

For example, we use a cookie called 'recently_watched_video_id_list' so that YouTube can record the videos most recently watched by a particular browser.

- Google Analytics

This site uses Google Analytics which is one of the most widespread and trusted analytics solution on the web for helping us to understand how you use the site and ways that we can improve your experience. These cookies may track things such as how long you spend on the site and the pages that you visit so we can continue to produce engaging content.

For more information on Google Analytics cookies, see the official Google Analytics page: https://developers.google.com/analytics/devguides/collection/analyticsjs/cookie-usage

Third party analytics are used to track and measure usage of this site so that we can continue to produce engaging content. These cookies may track things such as how long you spend on the site or pages you visit which helps us to understand how we can improve the site for you.

- Social Media buttons

We also use social media buttons and/or plugins on this site that allow you to connect with your social network in various ways. For these to work the following social media sites including; {Facebook, LinkedIn, Youtube, Twitter, Medium, Flickr}, will set cookies through our site which may be used to enhance your profile on their site or contribute to the data they hold for various purposes outlined in their respective privacy policies.
