

Trade union internationalism

Contents

Note to Readers	237
Editorial	241
Tomas Berglund and Jeremy Waddington
Main Articles
(How) can international trade union organisations be democratic?	253
Richard Hyman and Rebecca Gumbrell-McCormick
Populism and trade union internationalism: the case of Italy	273
Salvo Leonardi and Mimmo Carrieri
The European Trade Union Federations within the European polity: ETUFs and international trade union activity	289
Torsten Müller and Hans-Wolfgang Platzer
Looking for European solutions. Trade unions in Central and Eastern Europe striving for cross-border solidarity	307
Jan Czarzasty, Sławomir Adamczyk and Barbara Surdykowska
Challenges posed by the EU minimum wage initiative to the ETUC and European trade union cooperation	325
Kristina Lovén Seldén
European trade union cooperation, union density and employee attitudes to unions	345
Bengt Furåker

Book Reviews

Jane Pillinger and Nora Wintour 359
Collective Bargaining and Gender Equality (Gendered Economy)
Reviewed by: Heather Wakefield

Thomas Piketty 361
Capital and Ideology
Reviewed by: Martin Myant

Coordinators of this issue: Tomas Berglund and Jeremy Waddington