

Content

Preface	9
Karen M. Anderson and Elke Heins
Chapter 1
After the European elections and the first wave of Covid-19: prospects for EU social policymaking		13
Introduction	13
1. Setting the agenda: the 2019 European Parliament elections and the new von der Leyen Commission	14
2. Social policy in the European Semester and in the context of Covid-19	20
3. Social policy agreements and setbacks January 2019–June 2020	24
Discussion and conclusion	27
Eleanor Brooks, Anniek de Ruijter and Scott L. Greer
Chapter 2
Covid-19 and European Union health policy: from crisis to collective action		33
Introduction: crisis and collective action	33
1. The past: the development of an EU health policy	34
2. The present: the EU health policy response to Covid-19	39
3. The future: a window of opportunity?	45
Conclusion	48
Martin Myant
Chapter 3
The economic and social consequences of Covid-19		53
Introduction	53
1. The first policy measures	53
2. The first economic consequences	55
3. The first social costs of the Covid-19 measures	60
4. The policy response at EU level	61
Conclusion	67

Jill Rubery and Isabel Tavora

Chapter 4

The Covid-19 crisis and gender equality: risks and opportunities	71
Introduction	71
1. The labour market, gender and the valuation of key workers.....	73
2. Covid-19 policy responses: gendered differences in support for income and employment.....	76
3. Care, the gender division of labour and parental leave provision.....	85
Conclusions.....	91

Éloi Laurent

Chapter 5

The European Green Deal: from growth strategy to social-ecological transition?	97
Introduction: Europe beyond growth, 50 years later	97
1. The EU Green Deal: growth versus sustainability and justice.....	98
2. Toward a just transition in Europe	101
3. Building a European social-ecological state freed from growth.....	104
Conclusion: a new institution for a new century.....	109

Sebastiano Sabato and Matteo Mandelli

Chapter 6

Integrating the Sustainable Development Goals into the European Semester: a governance conundrum for the von der Leyen Commission?	113
Introduction	113
1. The United Nations and sustainable development	114
2. The EU and sustainable development: the early steps.....	117
3. The Juncker Commission, the 2030 Agenda and the Sustainable Development Goals.....	119
4. The von der Leyen Commission and the integration of the SDGs in the Semester	122
Conclusions: the EU and sustainable development – facing the governance conundrum.....	127

Ramón Peña-Casas and Dalila Ghailani

Chapter 7

A European minimum wage framework: the solution to the ongoing increase in in-work poverty in Europe?	133
Introduction	133
1. In-work poverty and minimum wages in the European Union	134
2. Tackling in-work poverty: the various policies available to Member States	141
Conclusions.....	149

Bart Vanhercke, Slavina Spasova and Boris Fronteddu

Conclusions

Facing the economic and social consequences of the pandemic:

domestic and EU responses..... 155

Introduction: before 'it' – delivering Social Europe in 2019 155

1. Urgent policymaking to combat Covid-19:
economic and social consequences, national and EU responses 158
2. Beyond the Covid-19 emergency 170
3. Social policymaking in uncertain times: what to expect? 176

Boris Fronteddu and Denis Bouget

The European Union in 2019: key events 185

Boris Fronteddu and Denis Bouget

Chronology: the European Union response to the first wave of the Covid-19 pandemic
(January to August 2020)..... 199

List of contributors..... 215

List of abbreviations..... 219