

Trade Union training Green Competences For A Just Transition Draft Programme

Format: Face-to-face training course

22-24 March, Florence

22 March 2022

- 14.00 Registration
- 14.15 Word of welcome and introduction to the training course
Francesco Scrima, Director Centro Studi CISL
Staff
- Presentation of the participants
- 15.00 Introduction to the ETUI's green competence framework approach
- Franklin Kimbimbi - Education Officer, ETUI
 - Questions & Answers session
- 15.30 Working groups in parallel: "Which trade unions' values and visions towards Just Transition?" – Analysis and discussion on three case studies (meta-competence in terms of responsibility and ethics)
- 16.40 Coffee Break
- 17:00 Report from the working groups in plenary session
- 17:20 "The ecological transition: the position of ETUC and CISL"
Etui expert to be confirmed (online)
Angelo Colombini, Confederal Secretary CISL
- 18.15 The Cisl European Project on Just Transition
Ilaria Carlino, Project Coordinator
- 18.30 End of day 1

The ETUI is financially supported by the European Union

Trade Union training Green Competences For A Just Transition Draft Programme

23 March 2022

- 09:00 Opening of the session and brief reminder of Day 1
- 09:05 “Causes and consequences of climate change” – expert to be confirmed (online)
Question and Answer session
- 09.50 “The state of the art in Italy: the PNRR and the energy issue”
Italian Expert to be confirmed
Question and Answer session
- 10:40 Coffee break
- 11:00 Working groups in parallel: “Future Lab: what could be the consequences of inaction?
What could be the results of climate action and climate change mitigation policies?
Which could be the cross-cutting impacts of sectoral policies?”
(Prospective and systemic meta-competences)
- 13:00 Lunch
- 14:30 Report from the working groups in plenary session
- 15:00 “Sectoral policies and climate change mitigation measures: perspectives and impacts”
Round table with two experts (energy sector and construction sector) and with Nora Garofalo
(General Secretary of FEMCA CISL) and Enzo Pelle (General Secretary of FILCA CISL)
- 16:40 Coffee break
- 17:00 Working groups in parallel: “What critical change elements in Just Transition real cases?”
Analysis of case-histories (meta-competence in terms of change)
- 18.15 Report back in plenary
- 18.30 End of day 2

Trade Union training Green Competences For A Just Transition Draft Programme

24 March 2022

- 09:00 Opening of the session and brief reminder of Day 2 of the training
- 09:15 Role-play on a real case: “How to negotiate a strategy for a just transition plan in a conflictual situation, considering the interests of different stakeholders” (Collective meta-competence) - part 1
- 10:45 Coffee break
- 11.15 Role-play on a real case: “How to negotiate a strategy for a just transition plan in a conflictual situation, considering the interests of different stakeholders” (Collective meta-competence) – part 2
- 12.15 De-briefing of the role play
- 13:00 Lunch
- 14:15 Individual activity + working groups in parallel: “How to implement the meta-competences in my work?” (Integrative Activity)
- 15:15 Report from the working groups in plenary session and discussion
- 15:45 Concluding remarks and evaluation
- 16.00 End of day 3

