

Green competences for trade unionists -Draft

Fechas: 16, 17 y 18 March, 2022

Ref.: 2152-039-14

Venue: Madrid (ES)

Tue 15th	Wednesday 16th	Thursday 17th	Friday 18th	Sat 19th
PARTICIPANTS ARRIVAL	09:00 Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participants (icebreaker activity) Introduction to ETUI's green competence framework approach (F. Kimbimbi – ETUI) 	09:00 Working groups: A case on coal mines shutdown: trade union role (prospective competence) (Continuation) Report back	09:00 Working groups: A case about a strategy for a just transition plan (collective competence)	PARTICIPANTS DEPARTURE
	10:30 Coffee – break	Coffee – break (30')	Coffee – break (30')
	11:00 Working groups: Trade Unions values and visions towards just transition (competence in terms of Ethics & Responsibility)	11:00 Working groups: Critical change elements to sustainable mobility (competence in terms of change)	11:00 Working groups: A case about a strategy for a just transition plan (collective competence) (Continuation) Report back
	12:30 Lunch	12:30 Lunch	12:30 Lunch
	14:00 Working groups: Trade Unions values and visions towards just transition (competence in terms of Ethics & Responsibility) (Continuation) Report back	14:00 Working groups: Critical change elements to sustainable mobility (competence in terms of change) (Continuation) Report back	14:00 Working groups: How to implement green competences in a TU environment?
	15:30 Coffee – break	15:30 Coffee – break	15:30 Coffee – break
	16:00 Working groups: A case on coal mines shutdown: trade union role (prospective competence)	16:00 Working groups: A case on the impacts on the local economy after decreasing tourism (systemic competence)	16:00 Working groups: How to implement green competences in a TU environment (Continuation if needed)? Report back Concluding remarks and debate Evaluation sheet 17:00 End of the course
17:00 End of the day	17:00 End of the day	17:00 End of the day
7:45 Dinner out	Dinner out	Dinner out		