

Contents

Kalina Arabadjieva, Nicola Countouris, Bianca Luna Fabris and Wouter Zwysen Introduction .....	7
 Part I Learning from the past and reimagining the future .....	19
Danny Dorling Chapter 1 From the pandemic to the cost-of-living crisis: what are we learning? .....	21
Béla Galgóczi Chapter 2 Inequality in the green transition .....	39
Hamid R. Ekbia Chapter 3 Commodities or collectives? The fight over the future of technology .....	57
Colm O’Cinneide Chapter 4 Equality, rights and the ‘stickiness’ of the current political moment .....	67
 Part II Alternative narratives and policy solutions .....	79
Olivier De Schutter, Kate Pickett and Richard Wilkinson Chapter 5 Equality as an ingredient for a post-growth world .....	81
Nicola Countouris and Valerio De Stefano Chapter 6 The future concept of work .....	93

Guy Standing
Chapter 7
The era of chronic uncertainty: a transformational opportunity .....	105
Rania Antonopoulos
Chapter 8
Has the time for a European job guarantee policy arrived? .....	121
Part III Trade unionism and workplace democracy .....	133
K.D. Ewing
Chapter 9
'A just share of the fruits of progress': the role of collective bargaining .....	135
Philippe Askenazy and Claude Didry
Chapter 10
Towards ecological embeddedness in democratised workplaces: addressing climate change as a labour issue .....	147
Reingard Zimmer
Chapter 11
Against authoritarianism: participation, solidarity and (direct) democracy in the world of work .....	163
List of contributors .....	175